what we understand

Three guesses about Laguna Metts. Tell us which are wrong.

INDUSTRY A manufacturer

TODAY A Thai ERP with localisation challenges

NEED An ERP set up for BIR requirements

Our guesses

True, or not us?

1	PH forms and ATC codes are kept outside the ERP	True	Not us
2	Thai-format reports are re-keyed for the BIR	True	Not us
3	Support for PH changes is slow	True	Not us

the rules in plain words

From 31 December 2026, covered taxpayers e-invoice.

31 DECEMBER 2026

working days left

31 Dec 2026. From this date, covered taxpayers issue compliant e-invoices. An issued e-invoice can't be deleted or changed.

Who it covers

- E-commerce or internet sellers
- Large Taxpayers Service
- Large taxpayers (RA 11976, RR 8-2024)
- CAS or CBA users with invoicing software
- Micro taxpayers: exempt

Your accountant or RDO confirms which group you are in. Head office and branches are covered.

TAX CODE SEC. 264(A)

No proper invoice issued

₱1,000 – ₱50,000

fine, and imprisonment of 2 to 4 years

For failing or refusing to issue an invoice. RR 11-2025 applies it to e-invoicing.

TAX CODE SEC. 264-A

Sales data not sent to the BIR

₱10,000 a day

or 1/10 of 1% of annual net income a day, if higher · over 180 days in a year: permanent closure

Applies once the BIR switches on electronic sales reporting (not started yet).

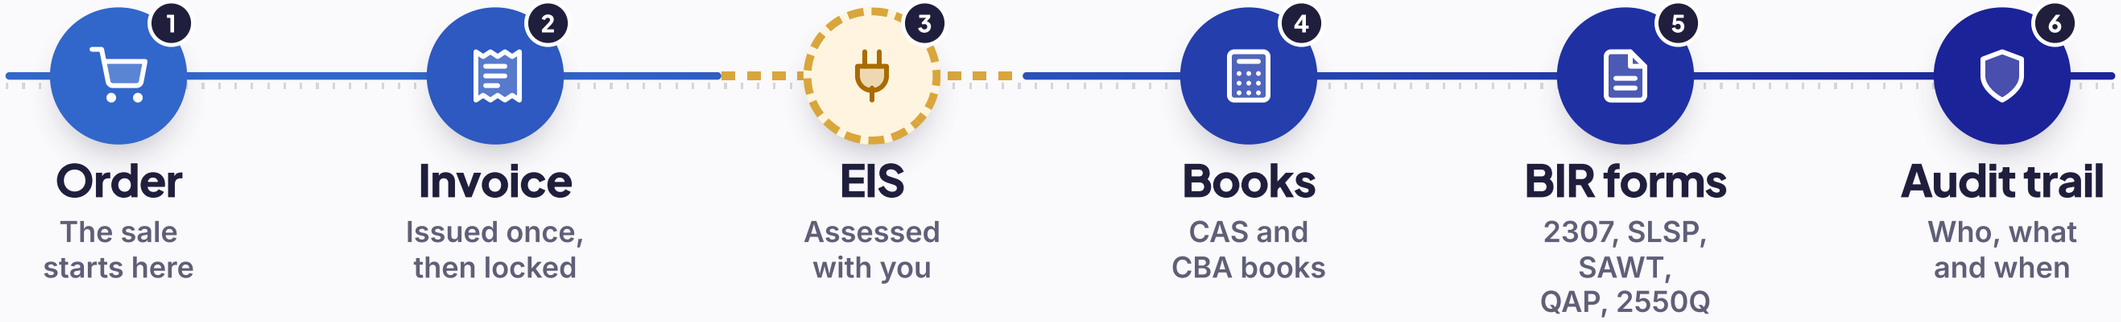

The BIR has not published a separate penalty for the 31 December date itself, and the Commissioner can still extend it.

Your accountant or RDO confirms what applies. TechNext is not affiliated with the BIR.

for our call

Eight questions we need answered.

0 answered · 0 to follow up

Copy follow-ups

1. Which Thai ERP do you run, and which version?
2. What do you do outside it today: spreadsheets, re-keyed reports, paper forms?
3. Who maintains it: your team, the vendor or a local partner?
4. Which BIR forms and books do you prepare, and who prepares them?
5. Where do you stand with a CAS or CBA registration and a Permit to Issue?
6. What does your accountant say the system has to cover?
7. How much history should move across: open items, balances, past years?
8. Which dates constrain the move besides 31 December?
